

Make a circle of joy

Contribute to create a sustainable society as a leading company of the resource recycling business

We collect and recycle unneeded items to be reborn as resources, which circulate to support someone's social life and lead to joy.

This is our joy as well, and the force that drives us toward the future.

Our mission lies in continuing to fulfill our responsibilities and in continually pursuing the resource recycling business, which we have undertaken as our core business since our founding.

As a group of leading companies in resource recycling, the ENVIPRO Group is a needed presence. We are convinced that our continued growth will lead to the achievement of a sustainable society.

"Make a circle of joy"

Together with all our stakeholders, we will continue to make a loop of joy.

That is the hope of the ENVIPRO Group, and our promise to the future.
